

New Chief Commercial Officer Switzerland

As of 14 October 2019, Daniel Bärger will assume overall responsibility for the Swiss market as Chief Commercial Officer Switzerland.

In this function, he will be a member of the Executive Board of Gilgen Door Systems. He succeeds Stefan Zweifel, who resigned from his position at the end of July.

Daniel Bärger has many years of experience in sales and management. He worked for SBB Cargo in various functions for the last 20 years. The 39-year-old was most recently responsible for sales, product management, business development and all customer service at Switzerland's largest transport company.

"We are delighted that in Daniel Bärger we have been able to recruit an experienced manager for this important position. With his profound knowledge of sales, we can continue to serve our customers optimally and further consolidate our market leadership in Switzerland," says Martin Plüss, CEO.
